

www.reservoir.church

Redemption is the motivation for a life of repentance.

Why do we have a tendency to forget the promise of redemption or ignore it and live to pursue sin or idols?

Why does God ditch the usual way of transactional relationships and keep redeeming people?

How does Jesus absolve us of our sin and why is this a permanent solution?

What does a life of regular repentance look like?